

10 Great Things You Can Find and Use

@ www.parentcenterhub.org

Resources Galore!

Need family-friendly info or research-based materials on key topics for Parent Centers? Search the Hub library—more than 900 resources have been posted to date.

Buzz from the Hub

Our monthly e-news highlights hot new resources, upcoming events of note, and materials you can share with families via social media, your website, or your own e-newsletter. The Buzz also spotlights a different key topic every month.

Facebook and Twitter Posts Every Day

Follow us on social media to keep on the pulse beat of the latest disability-related resources through CPIR's daily social media posts. Feel free to post them on your own social media pages.

Private Workspaces for Parent Centers

Need a place online to work with colleagues across the Parent Center Network? Want to exchange resources with other centers, discuss high-priority topics, solve mutual challenges? You can do all this and more in the private work spaces for Parent Centers on the Hub. Register today, join different groups, create your own groups. www.parentcenterhub.org/login/

Materials from Other Parent Centers

Has your center created resources that other Parent Centers would love to use in their own work with families? Submit those resources to the Hub or in the private work spaces. Find new resources, too, especially designed by and for Parent Centers. <http://tinyurl.com/pj25hrf>

Databank of Survey Items

Knowing whether your workshops, trainings, events and services are making the mark with families, youth, donors and funders is really important for program improvement and sustainability. Check out this database of questions that you can use to survey your users. They come from your parent center colleagues and have been reviewed by professional evaluators.

Webinars & Webpages on Priority Topics

Parent Centers have a common list of priority topics from OSEP we are expected to address. On the Hub you'll find web pages to connect you with great resources and info on webinars on these priority topics. Join live, or at your leisure via the Webinar archives. Topics include early learning, self advocacy skill building, assessments and more. www.parentcenterhub.org/priority-topics/www.parentcenterhub.org/repository/webinar-archives/

Central Event Calendar

Register for the Parent Center Work Spaces, then join Hub Central, where there's an event calendar we've created for the entire network. What's going on this month? Next month? You can post events of interest to Parent Centers too!

Who Knows What?!

Each of us is a huge source of knowledge and experience for our parent center colleagues. Find out "Who Knows What" about the issues we face with operating our centers. www.cpirwhoknowswhat.org

Legacy NICHCY Resources in English . . .

Last but not least, more than 450 resources were moved from NICHCY to CPIR Hub, so they continue to be available to you. Family-friendly disability fact sheets, IDEA training materials, parent guides, easy-to-read explanations of early intervention and special education, all about the IEP, the IFSP, transition planning and more. . . . & Spanish Ofrecemos muchos recursos en español que puede compartir con sus familias, incluyendo la mayoría de NICHCY en español. www.parentcenterhub.org/lista-espanol/

Center for Parent Information and Resources

www.parentcenterhub.org

www.facebook.com/parentcenterhub

www.twitter.com/nichcy

The Center for Parent Information & Resources is a project of the Statewide Parent Advocacy Network in partnership with the six (6) Regional Parent TA Centers (PTACs), The Branch Military PTAC, The Native American PTAC, and FHI-360 and is funded by the U.S.

Department of Education Office of Special Education Programs.