

Great Things From CPIR parentcenterhub.org

Meet the CPIR

The CPIR serves as a central “Hub” of information and products created for the network of Parent Centers across the country serving families of children with disabilities. Visit us at the Parent Center Hub to access the products and resources shared on this page and to learn more about the amazing Parent Center network.

Buzz from the Hub

Our monthly e-news highlights hot new resources, upcoming events of note, and materials you can share via social media, your website, or your own e-newsletter. The Buzz spotlights a key topic every month.

Social Media

Follow the CPIR on social media for the latest disability-related resources that you can share with your own social media groups:

CentersConnect Engage with colleagues across the Parent Center Network, exchange resources with other centers, discuss high-priority topics, and solve mutual challenges—all this and more when you join CentersConnect, a virtual platform exclusively for Parent Center professionals.

Central Event Calendar

The main Hub Event Calendar lists upcoming events from national TA Centers, regional PTACs, and other Parent Centers. Examples include calendar listings of upcoming workshops, webinars and other events. You can also post your own events of interest to Parent Centers.

Parent Center e-Learning Hub

The eLearning Hub provides key capacity-building resources to Parent Center staff via online self-paced training modules. Follow this link to sign up and see the course offerings.

Survey Item Bank

Knowing if your workshops, training, events, and services measure up with families, youth, donors, and funders is important for program improvement and sustainability. This database of 150+ ready to use questions, in English and Spanish, were designed by your Parent Center colleagues and reviewed by professional evaluators funded by OSEP, will enable you to quickly and easily survey participants in your programs and services.

Materials From Other Parent Centers
